Elizabeth Coulsey

It is with great sadness that we have to announce the passing of Elizabeth Coulsey in the early hours of Monday 7th May 2018. Elizabeth was very fond of St. Guthlac's, having worshipped with us since she moved from Bell House to Goldhill Gardens. Although latterly she was mainly to be seen at the Matins service, she was a great supporter of St. Guthlac's in everything we did. She will be greatly missed. May she rest in peace. Please remember Elizabeth in your prayers.

Update on future leadership at St Guthlac's
Please help through your prayers

The initial closing date for applications was Monday 20th May. We did not receive any applications by this date. In consultation with Archdeacon Tim Stratford and Adrian, it was decided to extend the application period. The advert will be adjusted slightly to encourage potential applicants to 'express an interest' to Adrian with a view to finding out more and perhaps visiting St. Guthlac's. This had not been possible in the original short time given for applications. While the Archdeacon was very positive about the Parish Profile we had produced, we are making some very minor alterations.

DO YOU WANT TO BE PART OF HELPING THE LOCAL CHURCH OF ENGLAND TO FLOURISH? We are looking for new people to volunteer to join the Diocesan Synod- a forum for people from across the Diocese of Leicester to come together two or three times a year. As well as a kind of assembly for the Diocese of Leicester, Synod is also a place where we come together to pray, discuss, and think about issues affecting the Church of England and our society. We want synod to be:

- A praying presence, supporting growth in the Diocese
- A company of Christians, learning from each other
- A people listening to God, reflecting on the issues of the day
- A reflection of the diversity of our communities

What can I do? A new Synod is elected this summer. For further information see the diocesan website <https://tinyurl.com/y96kfo3m> or contact Andy Brockbank by calling 0116 261 5312 or emailing andrew.brockbank@leccofe.org
