Sunday 13th July 2025
Fourth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 13th July

This Sunday at 10.30am, Fiona Wingate will be leading a service of Morning Prayer.

The Collect and Readings for the Fourth Sunday after Trinity

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy;
that with you as our ruler and guide
we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal;
grant this, heavenly Father,
for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen

1st Reading: Amos 7.7-17;

Psalm 82;

2nd Reading: Colossians 1.1-14;

Gospel Reading: Luke 10. 25-37

Praying for each other: Please continue to pray for other members of our congregations, and especially this month for all those whose surnames fall at the start of the alphabet, starting with the letters A, B C and D. Pray that the summer will be a time of rest and refreshment for everyone.

Praying for the World: Please give thanks that in the face of such complex and difficult challenges in the world, God is still strong and good, and that his Kingdom will come. Pray for peace, justice and hope across all countries and all peoples, and a renewed sense of commitment to working together for the good of all.

Praying for the Church: Please ask God to give all Christians a heart of penitence for past wrongs, but also hopefulness as we remember God's readiness to forgive and transform. Pray that the Church everywhere may be both attentive and responsive to all that the Spirit of God is saying to us and doing amongst us.

Praying for those who suffer in body, mind or spirit:

Lord, grant your healing grace to all who are sick, injured or disabled, that they may be made whole.

Grant to all who are lonely, anxious or depressed a knowledge of your will and an awareness of your presence.

Mend broken relationships, and restore to those in distress soundness of mind and serenity of spirit.

Sustain and support those who seek your guidance and lift up all who are brought low by the trials of this life.

Grant to the dying, peace and your presence, and uphold by the grace and consolation of your Holy Spirit those who are bereaved.

*Restore to wholeness whatever is broken by human sin,
in our lives, in our nation, and in the world.*

Hear us, Lord of life.

Amen.

In particular please pray this week for Katherine Swanson, Margaret Roff, Adri Cook, Dale McCullough and John Orme.

Also, give thanks for those who are recovering and who have found God's peace.

Please remember those who have died recently, and pray for their families and friends. We also remember all those whose anniversaries fall at this time.

Weekly prayer for roads in the parish – London Road and Raglan Court.

Blessing your donations & the Collection Plate

Now many people do planned-giving through their direct debit, it seems inappropriate to hand the collection plate round during a service. The collection plate now will be at the back of the church.

Please leave your donation as you come into the service. A steward or member of the congregation will take up the plate to the altar for all donations to be blessed during the 3rd / offertory hymn or at a suitable point in non-Eucharist services.

EcoTip: Plastic Free July.

This is a great opportunity to review where you might be able to reduce single-use plastics in your life. Being part of Plastic Free July will help you find great alternatives that can become new habits forever.

Paying attention to what we consume and its effect on God's earth, can lead us not into guilt, but into action and prayerful determination to see change where it's possible. Read more about the effects of plastic at <https://arocha.org.uk/plastic-summer/>

St Guthlac's Summer Read

Join us in reading one or more books by Raynor Winn

The Salt Path

Just days after Raynor learns that Moth, her husband of 32 years, is terminally ill, their home is taken away and they lose their livelihood. With nothing left and little time, they make the impulsive decision to walk the 630 miles of the sea-swept South West Coast Path, from Somerset to Dorset, via Devon and Cornwall. Carrying only the essentials for survival on their backs, they live wild in a remarkable journey.

The Wild Silence

But all journeys must end and when the couple return to civilisation they find that four walls feel like a prison, cutting them off from the sea and sky that sustained them. So when the chance to rewild an old Cornish farm comes their way, they grasp it, hoping they'll reconnect with the natural world and find themselves once again on its path . . .

Copies of the books will be available to borrow from St Guthlac's church and Holbrook Oasis café which meets every Wednesday between 1.30 – 3.30.

There will be an opportunity to meet to discuss the books on Tuesday 16th September at 7.00 (with tea & cakes)
